PROBLEM

Many Christians struggle to pray, often because we don't see answers that reinforce the value of praying.

SOLUTION

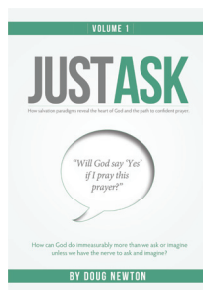

We need greater confidence that we are praying prayers God is pleased to answer. Hesitant prayers are usually unanswered prayers, because effective prayer requires faith and fervency.

DISCOVERY

The kind of confidence we need comes from understanding what God accomplished through the saving work of Jesus Christ. Salvation is greater than we recognize. The Just Ask seminar exposes participants to various paradigms of salvation that reveal the heart and purposes of God, which consequently help us know the kind of prayers He would be pleased to answer.

THE SEMINAR

Based on the three-volume collection of Just Ask books, participants will be given an overview of "salvation paradigms." Then they will be exposed to several paradigms and excited to see how these various biblical views of salvation can shape prayers and boost faith. Each session concludes with guided prayer times when participants can practice praying with greater confidence.

LIFE CHANGING TESTIMONIALS

"I can't believe how excited I am to pray now."

"Why I have never seen these things before, I don't know. But I know I'll never have such a narrow view of salvation again!"

"Learning about the partnership paradigm alone was more than worth the time. Now I understand like never before why I need to pray. And why it's such a privilege."

"If every Christian would see the greatness and implications of our salvation, and how to pray accordingly, the world would be transformed. I have no doubt."
